

Supporting your child's transition through

Primary 1

Build a caring home environment to nurture the social and emotional skills of your child using these S.A.F.E. tips.

SUPPORT

- Commit some time every weekend to play games and have fun together.
- Visit places or take part in events that both of you enjoy.
- Encourage your child to make new friends.
- Try out FTGP* Family Time activities.

AFFIRM

- Encourage your child when he makes observations.
E.g. Say "That's interesting!" and ask why he/she said that.
- Recognise small successes. E.g. Say "You've made another new friend in class - well done!"

FAMILIARISE

- Find out what primary schools have in store for students these days.
- Do practical things to ease your child into new routines.
E.g. Plan daily routines together, teach your child new habits like packing his/her bag.

EMPATHISE

- Teach your child words that describe feelings.
- Acknowledge your child's emotions.
E.g. "It's okay to feel anxious about starting school."
- Understand your child's needs. E.g. Start bedtime early. Children need a lot of sleep.

*Form Teacher Guidance Period

Spend Time Chatting.
Use T.A.D.

Talk

Talk about fond memories of your own school days.
E.g. What you did in Primary One; kind teachers and cheeky classmates you had.

Ask

Ask about his/her thoughts and feelings about the school.
E.g. FTGP* activities; when he/she felt happiest.

Discuss

Discuss together what can be done if he/she has worries at school.
E.g. Explore how people deal with conflicts.

QUICK TIPS

- Listen without interrupting.
- Nod your head and ask questions to show interest and affirmation.

Supporting your child's transition through

Primary 5/6

Build a caring home environment to nurture the social and emotional skills of your child using these S.A.F.E. tips.

SUPPORT

- Encourage your child to talk to a trusted adult for guidance.
E.g. Family members, school counsellors and teachers.
- Help your child understand decisions made and actions taken. Share the reasons for them.
- Keep rules short and realistic.
E.g. No handphones allowed during meal times.

AFFIRM

- Recognise his/her demonstration of good values or social skills.
E.g. Respect or good time-management.
- Praise your child's efforts regularly. Only scolding him/her without providing any justified praise at other times can be demoralizing.

FAMILIARISE

- Find out what Primary 5 and 6 is like for students these days. Moderate your expectations according to your child's own strengths and development.
- Share information on physical changes during puberty; include the range of emotions that may accompany it.

EMPATHISE

- Show that you understand your child's concerns. Be flexible in guiding your child when necessary.
E.g. Vary your voice tone when you talk to him/her at different times and circumstances.
- Teach with less talk and more role-modelling. Children learn a lot by simply watching.

Spend Time Chatting. Use T.A.D.

Talk

Talk about things that friends might pressure him/her to do, which can be harmful.

E.g. risky dares; deciding to meet an 'online friend' in person; making online purchases

Ask

Ask your child about interests he/she would like to explore, and what he/she needs to do to develop them.

E.g. make time for practice, sign up for courses/lessons

Discuss

Discuss a variety of occupations that your child may be interested to explore.

E.g. chef, interior designer, housing agent.

QUICK TIPS

- Listen without being distracted. Put aside whatever you had been doing.
- Be prepared to accept your child's views even though you may not fully agree with them.

Supporting your child's transition through

Secondary School

Build a caring home environment to nurture the social and emotional skills of your child using these S.A.F.E. tips.

SUPPORT

- Find out how your child's preferences are changing. Show interest by asking open-ended questions.
- Make a habit of chatting at a fixed time each day.
E.g. At dinner time.

FAMILIARISE

- Find out what secondary school life is like for students these days.
- Excite him/her about new experiences secondary school students can have.
- Encourage him/her to pick up a new hobby or hone skills in outdoor sports.
- Limit his/her time spent on digital devices.

AFFIRM

- Remember your child's strengths. Build his/her self-esteem in those areas.
E.g. "You have the unique ability to get along well with people."
- Praise and affirm efforts in front of relatives and friends.
E.g. "She is very helpful towards her grandparents."

EMPATHISE

- Acknowledge your child's varying emotions.
E.g. "I understand you feel anxious about starting school without any of your old friends."
- Encourage your child to share thoughts and feelings about the new school.
- Prioritise sufficient sleep.

Spend Time Chatting. Use T.A.D.

Talk

Talk about the different realities faced by teens these days compared to the past.
E.g. How you communicated with friends without social media.

Ask

Ask about his/her thoughts and feelings on people and events around him/her or in the news.
E.g. What are some ways of having wholesome fun? How does he/she feel about the different types of jobs that adults do?

Discuss

Discuss some acceptable boundaries with regard to the use of electronic devices.
E.g. What are some rules for having a mobile phone (with or without a data plan)?

QUICK TIPS

- Listen attentively to understand what your child might be feeling and thinking.
- Avoid providing advice immediately when not asked.

These tips may be used with children of other ages too; it depends on each child's needs. Using these tips as your child journeys through the school years can help ease anxiety and worries, and build warmer and closer relationships at home.

Supporting your child's transition through

Upper Secondary

Build a caring home environment to nurture the social and emotional skills of your child using these S.A.F.E. tips.

SUPPORT

- Let your teen be alone if he/she does not feel like doing anything together with you; but be available when he/she needs you.
- Have meals together regularly. It offers a way to connect.
- Be flexible. Allow more independence as your teen demonstrates more responsibility.

AFFIRM

- Describe what is done right and why it is helpful whenever you praise your teen. Specific praise is more genuine and encouraging.
- Be sensitive to your teen's preferences.
E.g. Give praise in private if he/she tends to be easily embarrassed.

FAMILIARISE

- Find out what post-secondary institutions have in store for students these days. Make informed decisions together.
- Highlight how different institutions and industries can match your teen's interests.

EMPATHISE

- Respond to your teen's emotions without judging.
E.g. If he/she complains at the end of CCA training, say: "Sounds like you're tired after training hard."
- Encourage your teen to share with you why he/she makes certain decisions. Acknowledge his/her struggles and strengths.

Spend Time Chatting. Use T.A.D.

Talk

Talk about your teen's interests. Encourage him/her to share the who, what, where, when, whys and hows of that interest.

E.g. sports, the latest phone apps, fashion

Ask

Ask about his/her thoughts and feelings on the latest posts and discussions on social media.

E.g. issues on bullying

Discuss

Discuss new boundaries as your teen displays greater maturity.

E.g. Allow a later curfew - recognise that he/she can be trusted with more responsibilities

QUICK TIPS

- Listen patiently; allow your teen to draw his/her own conclusions if needed.
- Provide a safe space for your child to vent and talk.

These tips may be used with children of other ages too; it depends on each child's needs. Using these tips as your child journeys through the school years can help ease anxiety and worries, and build warmer and closer relationships at home.
